ARDIAN

Don't just take our word for it...

“ We have used the Alliance for many years now and I must say the service just gets better and better. Our management team as well as other personnel who need to improve their French language skills regularly have courses with the Alliance who make it easier by coming to our premises & tailoring the courses to individual standards and business needs. It is essential in business to be able to communicate well with all stakeholders and the Alliance Francaise helps you do that.”

Come and meet a dedicated and professional team eager to help you achieve your objectives at your own pace.

All our tutors are qualified French language experts and meet on a regular basis to exchange and discuss their teaching practices.

All our French courses conform to the standards of the Common European Framework allowing to acquire a level of learning recognized on an international level.

DELFDALF Exams

Based on the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, the Diplome d'Etudes en Langue Française is awarded by the French Ministry of Education and is valid for life. It is the only official French language proficiency qualifications. It test the four skills: listening, reading, writing and speaking.

Whether for professional use, to improve your CV or simply for your own personal benefit, why not take a DELF pro or DALF examination?

Registration

If you would like to register, please call or email us. We take great care to ensure that groups are formed of people with the same level of French. If you are not a complete beginner, please call us for a free and friendly meeting to assess your level.
